FUGITIVE WANTED BY THE LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT CAPTURED IN EAST GOSHEN TOWNSHIP

April Lynn Parks

On March 8, 2017 at 4:00 PM the Westtown-East Goshen Regional Police Department was alerted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation that fugitive April Lynn Parks, age 52, was at a local business in the 1300 block of Enterprise Drive in East Goshen Township, Chester County.

Members of the Westtown-East Goshen Regional Police Department and Willistown Township Police Department arrested Parks without incident and confirmed through NCIC that she was wanted on a felony warrant issued by the Clark County District Court in connection with an indictment on March 8, 2017.

According to the Indictment Warrant, Parks was charged in Nevada with 1 felony count of racketeering, 33 felony counts of theft, 19 felony counts of exploitation of an older person, 18 felony counts of exploitation of and older person/vulnerable person, 9 felony counts of theft, 74 felony counts of offering false instruments for filing or record and 58 felony counts of perjury. The investigation in Las Vegas concentrated on a business operated by April Lynn Parks that was supposed to provide guardianship to the elderly and disabled persons.

The Westtown-East Goshen Regional Police Department charged April Lynn Parks with being a Fugitive from Justice and Parks was arraigned before Magisterial District Judge Lori Novak Donatelli who set bail at $500,000.00 dollars. Parks was remanded to Chester County Prison pending extradition to Clark County, Nevada.
